GENERAL ORGANISATION OF PLACEMENTS: NURSING

1st year
Clinical placements 1
Credits: 11 ECTS
Semester: 1rst and 2nd
Length of placement: 8 weeks
Area: • Nursing homes • Primary healthcare (private or public sector)
Features of the placement: • Global analysis of the centre, of its practice, educational and administrative model and how it relates to its environment • First contact with the healthcare environment

2nd year
Clinical placements 2
Credits: 11 ECTS
Semester: 2nd
Length of placements: 8 weeks
Area: • Hospitals: hospitalisation units
Features of the placement: • Clinical placements 2 enables second-year nursing degree students to have contact with the acute and chronically sick, where there will be direct contact with the professional world and where knowledge, skills and attitudes developed in second-year subjects can be integrated

3rd year
Community health placements
Hospitalisation placements 2
Advanced Clinical Rotation

Advanced Clinical Rotation	Community health placements	Hospitalisation placements 2
Credits: 10 ECTS	Credits: 6 ECTS	Credits: 5 ECTS
Semester: annual	Semester: 1st	Semester: 2nd
Length of placement: 8 weeks	Length of placement: 6 weeks	Length of placement: 6 weeks
Area: • Private and public hospitals • Primary healthcare centers • Private and public schools	Area: • Primary healthcare centres • ER in Primary Care (CUAP)	Area: • Hospital: public, private and semi-private
Features of the placements: • The Advanced Clinical Rotation constitutes an opportunity for the student to learn from different contexts in order to improve his/her skills and to discover new emergent professional roles	Features of the placements: • The student becomes part of a primary care team to develop competences which are relevant to this field	Features of the placements: • Hospitalisation placements 2 enables the third-year student to have close contact with hospital units/wards, and to establish a direct relationship with the profession in order to integrate knowledge, skills and attitudes developed in third-year subjects can be integrated

4th year End-of-degree placements 1 End-of-degree placements 2 End-of-degree placements 3
End-of-degree placements 1	End-of-degree placements 2	End-of-degree placements 3
Credits: 7 ECTS	Credits: 12 ECTS	Credits: 13 ECTS
Semester: 1st	Semester: 2nd	Semester: 2nd
Length of placement: 6 weeks	Length of placement: 8 weeks	Length of placement: 6 weeks
Area: • Intensive care, ER, theatres • Public, private and semi-private hospitals	Area: • Mental health services • Maternity services • Paediatric services • Public, private and semi-private hospitals	Area: • Public, private and semi-private hospitals • Primary healthcare • Mental health services • ER
Features of the placement: End-of-degree placements 1 enable the fourth-year student to have direct contact with hospital units caring for the critically ill, and will therefore be able to integrate knowledge, skills and attitudes developed in this environment	Features of the placement: End-of-degree placements 2 enable the fourth-year nursing degree student to have contact with the area of mental health, maternity and to gain an insight into care for the elderly following from the first contact in Introductory Practice 1 and Hospitalisation Placements 1	Features of the placement: End-of-degree placements 3 provides a learning environment in which the student can gain an insight or complement the level of competence gained in previous practical experience, which is why these take place in a range of contexts